The following clauses in the Prospectus are amended accordingly.

Clause 9.6.2 Admit Cards:

- (a) The eligible candidates can download their admit card for the Entrance Examinations from the official website of the Commissioner for Entrance Examinations. The candidates will have to enter their Application number and Date of Birth provided in the application form in order to download the admit card. They will have to take a printout of the admit card. Admit cards will not be sent by post from the Office of the Commissioner for Entrance Examinations. Help Desks and Facilitation Centres will be functioning across the State from where candidates can download and take printouts of admit card free of cost. The venue of the examination and time table will be noted in the admit card. Separate notification in this regard will be issued.
- (b) Rejection memo will be sent to candidates whose application has been rejected.
- (c) All candidates whose application has been accepted should download their admit card well in advance. However there will be provision for those candidates who are unable to take a printout of the admit card to get an identification certificate through the concerned Liaison Officer present at the places noted below, between 9 am and 1 pm on 17.04.2011.
- (d) The candidate himself/herself should meet the Liaison Officer with (i) his/her photograph attested on a plain paper by a Gazetted officer / the Head of the Institution where the candidate is studying or has studied and (ii) an identical photograph which has to be affixed in the Identification Certificate. Duplicate admit cards or Identification Certificates will not be issued to the candidates from the Office of the Commissioner for Entrance Examinations, directly.
- (e) A candidate who does not possess either the admit card or identification certificate issued by the Liaison officer, will not be admitted to the examination hall, under any circumstances.
