NOTIFICATION

ADMISSION TO PG MEDICAL COURSES-2022
ATTENTION TO NRI CANDIDATES

As per G.O.(Rt) No.375/2020/H&FWD, dated 22.02.2020, validity of the visa of the sponsor, which is one of the documents to be submitted by the students seeking admission to the NRI quota seats in PG Medical Courses in Kerala should be up to the closing date of admission. It has been noted that there is delay in obtaining the renewal of expired visa in some countries. In this circumstance, as per the directions from the Admission Supervisory Committee as per ASC 100/22/MBBS/NRI dated, 16.09.2022, those candidates who have uploaded expired visa along with online application will be granted provisional NRI status, if they upload online acknowledgement copy received at the time of submitting the application for visa renewal. Further, in the absence of online acknowledgement copy, provisional NRI category will be allowed to those candidates who upload sworn affidavit from the sponsor in the format available in the website of the Commissioner for Entrance Examinations stating that the valid visa shall be produced on or before the last date fixed by the Commissioner for Entrance Examinations for option confirmation to the second phase allotment to PG Medical courses. Thus, those candidates who have uploaded expired/expiring visa along with online application should upload the sworn affidavit from the sponsor regarding the validity of visa through the ‘PG Medical 2022 -Candidate Portal’ available in the website 'www.cee.kerala.gov.in' on or before 24.09.2022, 3.00 PM.

If the applicant fails to produce the valid visa within the stipulated time, the candidature of the applicant under the NRI Category in PG Medical courses will be withdrawn and the allotment/admission if any, given under NRI quota will be cancelled. The format of sworn affidavit to be procured from the sponsor is available in the website of Commissioner for Entrance Examinations. There is no need to send the affidavit or supporting documents to the office of the Commissioner for Entrance Examinations by e-mail or by post.
